U. P. EMPLOYEES WILL GET BEHIND MEN IN SERVICE.

Employees on the Union Pacific railroad are planning an organization to get behind the men who have left the railroad service to join the Navy and Military service of the nation.

So far, nearly 2,000 men have left the service of the Union Pacific for this purpose, and those who have not been called feel the need of some method through which they can keep in touch with men who have answered the call of the country and at the same time keep in touch with their friends and members of their families.

The Union Pacific employees in North Platte are arranging for a meeting to be held some time in the near future to be attended by representatives from all departments in this city for the purpose of making definite plans.

The fact that such an organization is being planned was brought to the attention of President Calvin and W. M. Jeffers, vice president and general manager, who have both given their enthusiastic support to the project and arrangements have been made so that Ballard Dunn, special representative of the president's office, can give as much time as necessary in working out the proposed program.

It is planned to prepare a complete roster of all men in the military service and to keep completely posted the military history of each of these men, noting in particular all promotions in rank, all citations of bravery and the award of medals for distinguished services. Committees will be selected at each district terminal whose duty it will be to get in touch with the members of the families of the Union Pacific men who have joined the military service from such points. These committees will especially learn the financial conditions in each instance and report concerning it, so that help can be offered in case it is necessary.

The details of the organization have been almost completely worked out by those in the Union Pacific service at Omaha, and the plans as worked out in Omaha will be called to the attention of those in the Union Pacific service in North Platte, at a meeting to be held at an early date. Mr. Dunn will be present at this meeting for the purpose of outlining what has already been accomplished in Omaha and what it is hoped to accomplish at all points on the Union Pacific railroad.

60,000 MEN TO BE CALLED FOR TECHNICAL WORK.

Washington dispatches state that Provost Marshall General Crowder will begin within a few days calling out for special instruction the men in the draft needed by the army in technical positions.

A general survey of the educational institutions of the country is in progress, it was announced, to determine what colleges and industrial schools will be available for their training during the summer months.

Probably 60,000 men, obtained principally from class one, will be ordered out for special training. Local draft boards will publish widely the opportunity that is afforded to registrants with a view to obtaining as many voluntary inductions into the service as possible.

Special Session of Legislature.

Governor Neville has issued a call for a special meeting of the legislature on Tuesday, March 26th. While the extra session is called primarily to enact legislation that will enable absent soldiers and sailors to vote at state elections, the governor has incorporated a number of other subjects. Among these is a change in the state constitution which permits aliens to vote after making their declaration of intention; the repeal of the Mockett law which requires the teaching of German in schools now petitioned; a law protecting the civil rights of the men in army and navy service; authority of the state board to issue mineral leases; to correct two errors in the session laws of 1917; to define the crime of sedition and providing a penalty; to legalize the home guards; and to define sabotage and provide a penalty.

Hurry Reese Passes Away.

Harry Reese, for thirty years a resident of North Platte, passed away at a local hospital early Tuesday morning. For over four months he had been taking treatment at the hospital for physical troubles incurable, and which needed constant attention.

The deceased came to North Platte the latter part of the 80's and accepted employment with the Union Pacific and was later promoted to engineer. In January, 1909, he was injured in a wreck at Sunol, which incapacitated him from further service with the company, and of late years he had conducted a clothes cleaning shop.

He is survived by two sons and a daughter who live in the east part of the state. The sons arrived Tuesday morning and Wednesday night accompanied the remains to Plattsmouth.

Smut Treatment Demonstration.

All farmers are invited to attend an open air demonstration of the treatment of seed wheat, to be held at North Platte at 2:30 next Saturday afternoon, just across the street from the post-office.

We are warned against a heavy smut loss this year. Labor is scarce and high in price. Smut costs the farmer money. It can be largely prevented by treatment. The process is simple. It is only a matter of doing it. This will be a farmers' meeting, and we will endeavor to have some one show us how the treating is done, while farmers selected from the crowd handle the shovel.

Dean C. F. Curtis to Meet Farmers.

The County Agent has just returned from a week's conference at Lincoln of county agents and department heads, which was called for the purpose of getting organized effort under a definite plan, to render all the assistance possible to the farmers of the state this season. We were met by experts from the federal capital, and several of the states, to give us an idea of what the government is trying to do, and the way things are being done in other parts. The essence of the conference was that food is necessary to win the war. The government admits mistakes, but it is trying to do everything in its power to help. However, it is necessary for the people to also feel their personal responsibility.

In order for the Government to know what conditions are, and what farmers need and want, Dean C. F. Curtis, of Iowa, is sent out to Nebraska to discuss farmers' war problems. He is limited to three meetings in each state. Every county and agricultural interest should send a delegation to one of these meetings, and lay the facts of our local conditions before him, that he may carry the information back to Washington. The nearest meeting for Lincoln county to attend is at Hastings Friday, March 29th, at 3 p. m.

You must "crack" the shell to find out if it is really good—whether it is eggs or heating systems. You know, a heating system you see installed in someone's home really tells you nothing of the "works" inside, and it's the works that determine economy, durability, cleanliness, service, and satisfaction.

The Round Oak Moistair Heating System

is not what you see when the casing is on, but the powerful system, stripped of its "shell." Examine the illustration at the left—Read the five star points and then let us mail you—free—the large, illustrated book that explains clearly and in a simple, powerful manner the fundamental principles of the economical and healthful heating of homes.

Shorthorn steers at the International Chicago, made the highest dressed weight percentage of any breed. Sixty yearlings averaged 65.3 per cent. Shorthorn steers were grand champions at Denver, Portland, Salt Lake City and Chicago. Shorthorn cows are making records up to 17,564 pounds of milk and 569.7 pounds of butterfat per year.—American Shorthorn Breeders' Association, 13 Dexter Park Ave., Chicago.

There are some words in the English language that mean much more to me than many others. The words, Mother, Wife, Children, Love, Kindness, Charity, Forgiveness, Hope, Energy, Success—each is a word subject for a volume. The "Mother" always brings to us holy thoughts and stills the passions of the lowest down. Were I allowed to add one more word and could go into the animal kingdom to find it, I would select that word the name of the breed that has done so much for the human race—the word "Shorthorn." With due respect to all other breeds of cattle there are few to dispute these statements: The Shorthorn breed is the pioneer breed in America; It is the cosmopolitan breed.

Shorthorns are the most practical, coming the nearest as they do to being all-purpose cattle. Few farmers can afford to keep one breed for milk and butter and another for beef. The Shorthorn supplies both, and the blood has done more to improve the country's cattle than all the other breeds combined. The Shorthorn breed and the grades have given us more beef, butter and milk than all the other breeds combined. That is explained by the fact that Shorthorns have been the choice of the great majority of men who have kept cattle. These being well known facts with no one to dispute, how could I select any other word than "Shorthorn" to add to my list?—By Col. F. M. Woods, Lincoln, Nebraska.

GUARANTEE

All animals of breeding age are guaranteed breeders. Those with calf at foot or heavy in calf are considered breeders, and no further guarantee given. All animals that do not prove breeders can be returned if in as good condition as when sold, and after a reasonable trial we cannot get them to breed an animal of equal value will be given in their place or money refunded. Any animal that proves not to be with calf may be returned and we will breed them free of charge, owner to pay transportation expenses. Certificates will be furnished with each animal sold. Cattle will be loaded at Farnam on B. & M. R. R., or at Gothenburg for those wishing to ship over the U. F. R. R. All animals will be at purchasers risk as soon as bid off, but will be given the same care as our own.

Cattle are insured by the Association up to 30 days after sale from death from any cause for amount of purchase price.

TERMS:—Cash or short time notes will be taken; parties not known to us please bring late bank references.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

The unknown heirs, unknown devisees, unknown legatees and the unknown personal representatives of Minnie Oberst, deceased, will take notice that on the 23d day of February, 1918, Richi Ugal filed his petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, against the said defendants, the object and prayer of which are to quiet plaintiff's title to west forty-four (44) feet of Lot two (2) in Block One Hundred Three (103) of the city of North Platte, Nebraska, and that the title to said premises be quieted and confirmed in the said Richi Ugal, and that the said unknown heirs, unknown legatees, and devisees, and unknown personal representatives of Minnie Oberst, deceased, and all persons claiming through or under them and each of them be forever barred and enjoined from claiming any right, title or interest in or to said real estate or any part thereof adverse to plaintiff's title, and plaintiff further alleges that he and his grantors have been in open, notorious, exclusive, undisputed uninterrupted and adverse possession of said real estate under a claim of right since December 29, 1891, and asks for general equitable relief.

That on the 23d day of February, 1918, the District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, made and entered an order directing that notice of these proceedings be served upon the said defendants by publication.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday the 22d day of April, 1918.

Dated March 9th, 1918.

Rose Comb Rhode Island Reds were first developed and named by Mr. Wilber of Little Compton, R. I., and along about the year 1900 were introduced into Nebraska. Since that time they have steadily gained in popularity until today their superior qualities are generally acknowledged both as layers and for table use and are not surpassed for beauty by any other variety.

If I thought there were any better I would certainly be raising them. This year I will have pens from which to furnish eggs for hatching.

Pen No. 1 headed by 2d Cockerel of North Platte show. And the best dozen pullets of my flock, these all score from 95 to 90 and I am sure will produce splendid results.

Pen No. 2 is headed by 1st North Platte 1917 cock bird weight 11-lbs. and hens all weighing 7 to 8-lbs. of splendid shape and color. Included in this pen is 1st North Platte hen. This mating ought to produce splendid birds and you can get eggs from these two pens at $3.00 per setting of 15 eggs.

Pen No. 3 is my range flock and is headed by 1st Rising City cock bird and others as good. These hens and pullets are all thorough bred Rose Comb Reds and will give satisfaction I am sure. Eggs from pen No. 3, $1.50 per setting or $8.00 per hundred. Get your orders in early. First in will be served first.
